This cruise-only 8-day riverboat adventure showcases an authentic taste of daily life in the Douro River Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage Site steeped in a legacy of wine making for 2,000+ years.

PORTS OF CALL ROOTED IN WINE MAKING TRADITIONS

- Porto – Discover the essence of world-famous Port wine in the historic seaside city where it was perfected with private tastings and sightseeing
- Peso da Régua – Rabelos carrying barrels of regionally produced Port wine bound for aging casks in Porto set sail from this scenic wine-terraced town for centuries; learn more during your visit to the Douro Museum
- Pinhão – Nestled amidst vineyards on the shores of the Douro, this pretty town is straight out of a postcard, inviting up-close exploration on a choice of activities including hiking and al fresco wine tasting at a family-owned quinta
- Pocinho – The perfect place to venture into the cliff-lined Douro Valley for visits to hidden gems, like the Palaeolithic rock art of Foz Côa and the medieval ramparts of Castelo Rodrigo

SHORE EXCURSIONS THAT CELEBRATE LOCAL LIFE

- Enjoy wine tastings at picturesque quintas hosted by expert wine makers who share insights on Douro Valley wines; go hiking and bicycling; visit villages, a museum, a palace and a prehistoric site, and view azulejo-tiled stories and storied views of one of the oldest wine regions in the world
